Excellence in Construction Award, 2009

Kutztown University – Dixon Hall
Kutztown, PA

Kinsley Construction, Wyomissing, has received the Excellence in Construction Award in the $25 - $50 million Institutional category as the general contractor for Dixon Hall at Kutztown University. The award was presented by the Keystone Chapter of the Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC).

Dixon Hall, a six story, 258,000 SF dormitory is the largest such facility in the Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education. In addition to housing 856 students there are 13 apartment style units, meeting rooms, a laundry and a 5,000 SF retail space, which includes an ice cream parlor.

Kinsley Construction is a family-owned business that has evolved into one of the largest full-service firms in the nation as measured by its annual rankings in the Top 400 Contractors published by Engineering News Record.
